GENERAL STATEMENT

History of the University The Jesuits came to New Orleans in 1847 with the purpose of establishing a college of Liberal Arts and Sciences. On February 1, 1849, the College of the Immaculate Conception, founded by them, began its remarkable career at the corner of Baronne and Common Streets. To it was attached a college preparatory academy. In 1904 the Jesuits opened an academy and a college on St. Charles Avenue opposite Audubon Park. These two associated institutions were known as Loyola College. In 1911 the College of the Immaculate Conception was united with Loyola College on the present Loyola campus. The Academy of the Immaculate Conception became the Jesuit High School. With it was united the preparatory school of Loyola College.

In response to a general demand from the public and an urgent request from His Excellency, Most Reverend James J. Blenk, then Archbishop of New Orleans, Loyola College was expanded into Loyola University in the fall of 1911. The University was authorized by the General Assembly of Louisiana in 1912 to grant all university degrees.

Loyola University of the South is but one of the many educational institutions conducted by the Jesuit Fathers in the United States and in many other countries. In the United States alone, the Jesuits conduct 62 educational institutions with a total enrollment of more than 68,000 students.

Jesuit System of Education Jesuit universities and colleges are unique in their characteristic educational methods. There is a system of education based on the best traditions, the experience, and the research of the better educators in many countries through many centuries. The fundamentals of this system are embodied in a collection of pedagogical principles and practices known as the Ratio Studiorum.

This system is distinctive in its aim and objective as well as in its method of approach. Thoroughly convinced that religion is not an appendage to education, but a very vital part of the training of the student and of the subject-matter of his courses, the Jesuits always have held as the goal of education the blending of the supernatural with the natural. Their purpose has been to produce a perfect man, seeking to develop his moral character as well as his wits, his soul as well as his body; believing that a true, cultured citizen of any state must be loyal to his God, his church, and his country.

As college life is the field in which youth with energy and initiative seeks to prepare itself for life's struggles, literature and science are studied in the light of an all-embracing philosophy which unifies knowledge and motivates action. The system is opposed to the pedagogical errors of undigested cramming, uncorrelated electives, over-specialization. The formation of habits of study, reading, and research, of quick thinking and exact expression is characteristic of their aim. Personal contact with the professors, whose example, taste, and experience are often a more potent factor of education than the professional lecture, is a vital part of the system.

Jesuit education prepares its students for eternity as well as for time; for life as well as for vocation.

The Need of College Education Today the armed services, the professions, the arts, the sciences, as well as business, look for a college education in their members. The mere specialist, the master of one skill or subject, does not make for progressive civilization and culture. Man as a social being must have a broad vision and wide experience. He must be familiar with many fields of thought and interest.

This rounded culture should be the fruit of college experience. Through selected courses, the investigating mind is led into the various fields of systematized knowledge. Correlation of these courses makes for unity and thoroughness, for mastery in one's chosen field without ignorance of the others, for a well-stored mind that has been trained to think for itself and has grown capable of working out problems that present themselves in school and in later life.

Besides, one learns poise and refined bearing, acquires prudence and good judgment, from daily contact with fellow students of talent and ambition. By this hourly intercourse with one's fellow men of the best type, defects are overcome, habitual attitudes are adopted and perfected, and character is molded.

Organization The College of Arts and Sciences at present conducts the following departments: Biology, Chemistry, Classical Languages, Economics, Education and Physical Education, English and Journalism, Speech, History and Political Science, Medical Technology, Modern Foreign Languages,

Philosophy, Physics and Mathematics, Religion, and Sociology. In these departments the College offers courses leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Philosophy, and Bachelor of Science. It also conducts pre-professional courses that qualify students for entrance into the professional schools of Dentistry, Law, and Medicine.

Classical Studies It is one of the regrettable results of the present unrest in the educational world, where the forces arrayed to give vocational training, mechanical development, wage-earning skill, and physical culture are clashing with the traditional classical methods, that the cultural and academic subjects have lost much of their former prestige. No other curriculum has been found to provide the comprehensive training of mind, heart, and will as surely and as efficiently as did the classical studies when they flourished in a golden age as the cause and the fruit of erudition, scholarship, and refinement.

Modern Sciences It is a grievous error to believe that the lovers of literature and art must be enemies of science and invention. The history of science shows plainly how the great scientific discoveries came out of the institutions hallowed for their classical learning. Until recent times all scientific information and the disputes and inventions of scientists found their way to the public through the Latin tongue.

Ample facilities are offered in the College of Arts and Sciences to the lover of natural science. Large, fully equipped laboratories for general and specialized chemistry, biology, medical technology, and physics are provided. Consecutive courses covering four years of intensive study lead to the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Commerce and Finance As college graduates frequently choose careers in the business world, a specialized curriculum in the subjects of commerce and finance is offered. Efforts are made to prepare young men for important positions in the various types of industrial and financial administration. After four years of intensive study one may earn the degree of Bachelor of Science.

Bequests and Gifts Because of its rapid growth the University must look to its friends and benefactors, and to all those whose bounty is being devoted to the cause of higher education, for the generous contributions which will enable the University to continue its building program. The University hopes for a continuance of financial as well as moral support from those who believe in placing college education within the reach of every deserving student, and who consider that education the safest and best which postulates as the foundation of its intellectual development the formation of character through moral and religious education.

The University cherishes the memory of all its benefactors, great and small. These share in the good works and prayers of the Jesuits of Loyola. Their generous assistance to the University, according to their means, will be remembered long after they are gone.

Among the distinguished benefactors of the University should be mentioned: Miss Sarah Babb, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bobet, Mrs. Paul Bordenave, Hon. Joseph A. Breau, Mr. Joseph P. Buckley, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. P. Burke, Miss Leonora Del Bondio, Mr. Lawrence Fabacher, Mr. Edward Fassmann, Miss Mary Ferguson, Mr. Bernard Ghio, K. of St. G., Mr. G. R. Katz, Miss Mary Agnes McCabe, Miss Katherine McDermott, Mrs. J. B. Palmer, Mrs. Emma P. Quintero, Mrs. Louise Jouet Rabouin, Mrs. Olive Stallings, Mrs. George Swarbrick, Mrs. S. O. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vincent, Miss Lilly Whitaker.

Those who are desirous of helping Loyola University in its sublime mission of higher education by erecting buildings as family memorials, or by endowing departments or lecture-chairs in any of its schools or colleges, are requested to make their donations, legacies and bequests in the proper legal form, as shown on page 75 of this Bulletin. One may specify the purpose for which the gift is to be used. This intention will be observed scrupulously. It is well to state whether the sum is for building and equipment or for endowment, as the latter must be invested and only the accruing interest may be used.

Scholarships Through the generosity of friends, the College is able to offer a limited number of scholarships each year to bright and ambitious young men of fine moral character. The College is very happy to be able to assist these splendid young men in getting a higher education which will prepare them for outstanding citizenship. The President and faculty of the College are deeply grateful to their friends who with noble Christian spirit have extended a helping hand to the less fortunate. It is earnestly hoped that others will help to increase our scholarship fund for the benefit of deserving young men.

A Perpetual Scholarship is founded when an endowment of $4,000.00 is set aside for this purpose.

A Course Scholarship represents an amount which will cover the tuition of one student during his four years of college. The sum of $560.00 may be deposited or $140.00 may be paid annually.

An Annual Scholarship is provided by the yearly donation of $140.00.

Scholarships cover the tuition fee only. The holder of the scholarship must pay the other fees at the beginning of the year, and he must at all times set an example of good conduct and serious application. The honor will be forfeited by any holder of a scholarship whose grades during a semester are unsatisfactory. Scholarships granted in the College of Arts and Sciences cannot be transferred to any other school or college of the University.

The following are scholarships which have been placed at the disposal of the University:

The W. P. Burke Scholarships (three).

The Rev. Francis X. Twellmeyer, S.J., Scholarship.

The Rev. A. E. Otis, S.J., Scholarship.

The Rev. Albert J. Biever, S.J., Scholarship.

The Louisiana State Councils of K. C. Scholarships (seven).

The St. Ignatius Scholarship, founded by Miss E. S. Fitch.

The St. Ignatius of Loyola Scholarship.

The Men's Sodality of Jesuits' Church Scholarship.

The Francis Xavier Wegmann Scholarship.

The Virginia Bobet Scholarship.

The Louise Thomas Scholarship.

The Albert J. B. Lapeyre Memorial Scholarship.

The Ladies' Marquette Auxiliary Scholarships (two).

The Mrs. Josephine Burke Palmer Scholarships (two).

The Hon. Joseph A. Breaux Scholarships (ten).

The Joseph A. Lipari Scholarships (three).

The Louise Jouet Rabouin Scholarships (two).

The G. R. Katz Scholarship.

Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary For the purpose of fostering religious faith and fervor, and to encourage the students to spiritual and scholastic leadership, the University Sodality offers many opportunities for personal development as well as training and practice in social work and religious activity. Weekly meetings are held for the discussion of phases of Catholic life.

Student Council The Student Council consists of eighteen members, representing the College of Arts and Sciences, the Schools of Law and Dentistry, and the Colleges of Pharmacy and Music. These students are selected by the student body with the approval of the faculty. The duty of the Council is to unify student thought and action. It conducts general meetings and elections, sponsors and manages interclass contests, contributes to the student publications, and leads and directs student activities.

The Philosophy Club The function of the Philosophy Club is to promote greater active interest in scholastic philosophy by more intensive study, lectures, and public disputations.

Language Clubs To foster a deeper appreciation of the finer literature of modern foreign languages, French, German and Spanish clubs are conducted for those more advanced students who qualify for membership.

Scientific Societies The Biology, Chemistry, Physics, and Mathematics Societies meet regularly for the discussion of special problems and for special lectures on scientific subjects. The students of the College of Arts and Sciences are eligible for membership subject to the respective special requirements for admission to each society.

Debating Clubs The students are encouraged to participate in exercises of public speaking. To further this activity two debating clubs conduct programs and engage in interscholastic debates with other universities in various sections of the country. These two clubs are known respectively as The Edward Douglass White Society and The Chief Justice Charles A. O'Niell Society.

Dramatic Clubs The purpose of the dramatic clubs is to develop and give an outlet to the dramatic talent of the students. With this object in view, several plays are given during the year.

Pegasus Poetry Society has as its purpose to further interest in poetry, to sponsor symposia and to study poetical works in general.

The Academy of Fine Arts aims to give its members more contact with art and to offer students the opportunity to acquire an esthetic appreciation of the great masters in painting, sculpture, architecture, and music.

Glee Club Students of the College of Arts and Sciences are eligible for membership in the Loyola Glee Club. The Glee Club takes an active part in the public entertainments and assemblies of the University.

University Band Membership in the University Band is open to the students of the College of Arts and Sciences if they have the required ability and training. All who become members are required to be regular and prompt in attendance at the appointed rehearsals and at all performances

Student Publications The students of the University, under faculty supervision, issue three publications, The Maroon, a weekly, the Wolf, an annual (discontinued for the duration of the war), and the Students' Handbook, the editors of which are appointed by the Committee on Student Publications; they in turn appoint their editorial staffs. The business management is in the hands of the students.

Honorary Scholastic Fraternities In order to give recognition and encouragement to high standards of scholarship among the students, several honorary scholastic fraternities have been established on the campus.

Delta Epsilon Sigma is a national scholastic honor society for students and graduates of Catholic colleges and universities. Members are chosen from the College of Arts and Sciences only on a basis of good character, liberal culture, and high scholarship. Candidates must have at least a "B" rating throughout their four years.

Alpha Sigma Nu is a national scholastic honor society for male students of Jesuit colleges and universities. The two highest ranking students in each school or college of the University are nominated for membership each year, and the final selection of members is made from their number.

Sigma Lambda is an honorary scholastic fraternity for students majoring in Accounting. Members must have at least a "B" average in Accounting.

ENTRANCE PROCEDURE

Application For Admission Applicants for admission to the Freshman class must meet the requirements stated below under Methods of Admission. The specific units of credit that are required and other units that may be presented for admission to the Freshman class are listed under Admission Requirements.

Application for admission accompanied by proper credentials shall be filed with the Registrar at least two weeks in advance of the date of registration. Applicants for admission as Freshmen, or with advanced standing, must submit official records from all schools and colleges previously attended. These credentials are to be sent directly by the proper officer of the school or college in which they were earned and not through the student. Credentials which are submitted for admission becomes the property of the University, even in the case of applicants to whom admission is denied, and are kept permanently on file. Blank forms for transcripts of records may be had on application to the Registrar.

It is recommended that applicants have their credentials sent to the Registrar immediately after graduation from high school. This will enable the Committee on Admissions to pass on their eligibility and to inform them of any deficiencies that may be made up in the summer session.

The University reserves the right to refuse admission to applicants whose previous work is of such a grade as to create doubt regarding their ability successfully to pursue their scholastic work in the University.

All students are expected to be matriculated before the beginning of the session's classes, thus allowing them ample time to be assigned to classes and to be provided with laboratory equipment.

Students should be present on the opening day of classes. They will not be admitted under any circumstances after the first ten class days. Freshmen must be present on the opening day of Freshman Orientation Week.

Methods of Admission I. As a Regular Student—Admission as a *matriculated student to the College of Arts and Sciences may be obtained by one of the following methods: (1) by certificate or diploma of graduation from an approved high school; (2) by examination; (3) by transfer from another institution of higher education.

Admission by Certificate—Admission without examination is granted to students who have graduated with a minimum of fifteen acceptable units and in the upper two-thirds of their class from any high school accredited by a recognized standardizing agency, or by the State Board of Education, or by the State University of the State in which the high school is located. The application for admission must be accompanied by a certificate from the high school showing the quantity and quality of work accomplished by the applicant and giving information about his personality, character, and health.

Admission by Examination—An applicant who is not entitled to enter by certificate, as stated above, must take entrance examinations in the following subjects: English, history, foreign language, mathematics, and science. These examinations are held in September. Applications for these examinations should be made to the Registrar of the University at least two weeks in advance of the opening date.

Admission to Advanced Standing—Advanced standing will be given, at the discretion of the Committee on Admission and Classification, to an applicant who has fulfilled the high school requirements for admission and in addition presents a transcript of college credits certified by the proper official of the college or university attended showing all the scholastic work done in that institution and in all other institutions of collegiate rank previously attended, and giving the student honorable dismissal. Credits presented from a non-accredited institution will be accepted rarely, at the discretion of the Committee on Admission and Classification, and only if the student has made satisfactory grades in his first semester's work at Loyola University College of Arts and Sciences. No transfer student will be accepted unless he has attained a "C" average for all hours attempted during the preceding year at the college from which he transfers, and no faculty action has been taken against him. Credits presented for work done by correspondence will never be accepted. Students applying for advanced standing should have all the required credentials sent to the Registrar of the University at least two weeks in advance of their registration.

II. As a Special Student—A limited number of mature persons who are not eligible for admission into the University by certificate may be admitted as special students under the following conditions: (1) they must be at least twenty-one years of age; (2) they must not have been in attendance in high school during the previous year; (3) they are to present all available certified credits of previous school work, together with formal application for admission as special students, stating the subject courses desired and the reasons for desiring those courses. When no certified credits can be presented, the applicant must furnish a detailed statement of all previous educational work and practical experience.

By virtue of his classification, a special student is not eligible for any degree. He may ultimately become a candidate for a degree by completing by entrance examinations the admission requirements of the department in which he wishes to register.

Registration as a special student is for one semester only. Registration for a following semester will be refused if the student has not shown satisfactory earnestness and definiteness of purpose, or if his work has not been satisfactory in the preceding semester. No one may register in the University as a special student for more than two years.

III. As an Out-of-Course Student—A limited number of earnest students of mature years who, though fully qualified for admission to the College as regular students, do not wish to register as candidates for a degree, but merely want to pursue particular studies for cultural purposes, may be permitted to register as out-of-course students, provided they have obtained the recommendation of the Chairman of the Department in which they wish to register, and the written permission of the Dean. Such recommendation and permission will not be given to applicants who are not evidently qualified to pursue profitably the desired courses.

An out-of-course student may not establish any credits toward the fulfillment of requirements for a degree unless he changes his academic status to that of a regular student. Out-of-course students are not permitted to continue their studies in the College beyond four semesters. At the beginning of each semester they must make written application to the Dean for the privilege of registering for that semester. This privilege will be granted only to those applicants who have shown, during the preceding semester, a satisfactory definiteness and earnestness of purpose.

Admission For admission to the College of Arts and Requirements Sciences at least fifteen acceptable high school units are required. In general, these units should show several sequences of subject-matter adapted to the course to which admission is sought.

1. It is strongly advised that all students be prepared to present the following units:

	Units
English	4
Mathematics	2
Social Science	2
Latin or Modern Foreign Language.....	2
Science	1

2. Special Requirements:

For the Bachelor of Arts degree:

	Units
Latin	3

For the Bachelor of Science degree with biology, chemistry or physics as a field of concentration:

	Units
French or German	2
Algebra	1½
Plane Geometry	1
Solid Geometry	½
Science	1

3. In general, only three units will be accepted from the following group; but students who register for the Bachelor of Science degree with economics as a field of concentration may present commercial or vocational subjects up to five units.

	Units		Units
Bookkeeping	1	Economics	$\frac{1}{2}$ - 1
Commercial Law	$\frac{1}{2}$ - 1	Music	1
Commercial Geography	1	Shop Work	1
Drawing—Mechanical	1	Stenography	$\frac{1}{2}$
Drawing—Freehand	1	Typewriting	$\frac{1}{2}$

4. A student may not register for a subject course which presupposes specific high school preparation, unless he has completed such preparation. Any deficiency in such preparation will make it necessary for him to take those basic courses which the University judges advisable. Credit for that work may or may not be allowed, according to the circumstances of the case.

Student Expenses The basic fee is $90.00 per trimester. A matriculation fee of $5.00 is charged at the time of a student's first registration in the College of Arts and Sciences. Additional fees are: $12.50 per trimester for each laboratory science course; $10.00 for Education 350 (Directed Observation and Teaching); $5.00 per trimester for compulsory Physical Education (to cover the cost of medical examinations and equipment used); $5.00 per trimester for Finance 321-322 (Laboratory fee).

The fees are paid in two installments in each trimester—the first on the date of registration, the second at mid-trimester. Until a student's indebtedness is paid in full, no transcript of credits or record of his work will be released from the University. Auditors are charged on the same basis as part-time students.

Students will be taxed for excessive breakage or destruction of University property. The decision covering each case will be made by the University.

A fee of $2.00 is charged for each entrance examination, also for late registration.

A fee of $1.00 is charged for a second transcript of credits, also for each subsequent transcript.

Each student may rent an individual locker for $2.00 a year.

The graduation fee is $25.00, payable on May 1. Each Senior is required to make a deposit of $5.00 on the date of registration in September for his use of the academic cap and gown during the year. This deposit will be refunded after his graduation, provided he returns the cap and gown in good condition.

If a student withdraws from the University within ten days after a payment is due, he will be refunded the full amount of his payment for that period less $10.00. No other refunds will be made except to the student who has paid a science laboratory fee and with permission of the Dean withdraws from that laboratory science course within ten days after registration. He will be refunded the full amount that he has paid for the course. Concerning refunds payable to students called to the armed services, Cf. page 23, "Withdrawal."

Student Housing The University maintains a limited number of rooming houses for the convenience of male students wishing to use these facilities. Students may board and lodge only at rooming houses approved by the University authorities. Names and locations of such approved and inspected houses will be furnished by the Assistant Dean. Ordinarily, room and board at these houses ranges from $25.00 to $35.00 per month.

ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE

Accelerated Program In the Spring Semester, 1942, Loyola University adjusted the time element of the traditional four-year curriculum and inaugurated an accelerated program of studies, necessitated by the present war conditions. The summer session was expanded to twelve weeks and incorporated into the sequence of the academic courses of all students. In the summer of 1943 further acceleration was obtained by a division of the scholastic year into three terms of sixteen weeks each.

Under this program, a student is able to complete the work required for a baccalaureate degree in two years and eight months. Thus, a student entering the University in October, 1943, will be graduated in May, 1946. Students not yet of draft age will find in the accelerated program an opportunity to complete a maximum amount of college work before being called into the service. Pre-medical, pre-dental and pre-legal courses may be completed in one year and four months. This accelerated program of studies abbreviates the time required to complete undergraduate courses without any change in academic standards and requirements. Similar programs of acceleration have been adopted by the professional schools and colleges of the University.

Instruction The unit of instruction is one hour a week for one trimester. Two hours of work in a laboratory are considered equivalent to one hour of class work. Students may receive credit only for the number of hours published for a course. No credit will be allowed for a course for which a student is not registered as a regular student.

A student is required to take a minimum of twelve semester hours of work each trimester. Lower division students normally schedule sixteen semester hours each trimester. Sophomores who have made an average of "C" in previous work may schedule, with the consent of the Dean, a slightly greater number of hours. Upper division students are expected to schedule approximately seventeen semester hours each trimester. On the recommendation of his faculty adviser, an upper division student may take a slightly greater number of hours. Upper division students may not elect Freshman courses except as provided in the regulations for combined courses.

Attendance as auditors is not granted without written permission of the Dean.

Withdrawal A student who withdraws from the University during a trimester before taking the final examinations of the trimester forfeits all credit for work done in that trimester. In the case of a student who is called to active duty in any branch of the armed services after the date for the beginning of the mid-trimester examinations and before the date for the final examinations in the trimester, the following exceptions to the above general rule have been made:

1. Such a student may take the mid-trimester examinations and upon successful completion of these examinations will be granted credit for one-half of the semester hours scheduled in that trimester. No charges will be made for the second half of the trimester.
2. Such a student may request examinations covering the whole of the subject-matter scheduled for that trimester, including the portion not yet covered in classes, and upon successful completion of such examinations will be granted full credit for that trimester. Tuition and fees for the second half of the trimester will be charged, but attendance at classes will be waived.

3. Such a student, if he is in the last trimester of his senior year, will be given full credit for all courses carried by him in that trimester upon successful completion of the mid-trimester examinations. These examinations will not include the matter to be covered in the second half of the trimester. He will be graduated in absentia at the end of the trimester, provided he has fulfilled all requirements of the university ("C" average, comprehensive examination, graduation fee, financial obligations). Tuition and fees for the second half of the trimester will be charged.

A student who is called to the armed services before the date on which mid-trimester examinations are scheduled to begin may not receive any credit for that trimester. The full amount charged for tuition and fees will be refunded.

To obtain his honorable dismissal on withdrawing from the University, the student must obtain from the Dean a written permission for such withdrawal, which must be presented to the Registrar. This written permission will not be given if the student has not met all financial obligations to the University, or if he is under any official censure, or if there is any official charge pending against him.

A student desiring to withdraw from a scheduled course or to add another course after his trimester's schedule has been filed in the Registrar's office may do so only after having obtained written permission from the Dean. Permission to add a course or to change from one section of a course to another will not be granted after the first ten class days of a trimester.

Attendance The University is insistent on regular and punctual attendance. Each tardiness, defined as a student's failure to be present when his name is called at the beginning of each class or laboratory, will be counted as a third of an absence, unless the tardiness exceeds fifteen minutes, when it will be counted as an absence. The student coming late is responsible for seeing that the instructor changes the absence noted at the beginning of the class to a tardiness. An absence on the day immediately following or immediately preceding a holiday will be marked as two absences unless, for some good reason, permission is asked and granted beforehand by the Assistant Dean.

Any student whose number of absences exceeds twice the number of semester hours that the course carries in a trimester is automatically suspended from that course. The student should report in writing to the office of the Assistant Dean within three days after his return to the University the reason for each absence incurred. Serious illness or a similarly grave cause will be the only reasons for which a student may incur absences. If a student exceeds the maximum number of absences, and if he has reported them to the office of the Assistant Dean within the specified time, a petition for reinstatement will be considered. If among the absences incurred there are more than three in any one course for which no acceptable excuse is presented, the student will under no circumstances be reinstated. The decision of the Committee on Attendance will be final.

Absences for any excuse whatever do not exempt a student from quizzes, tests, examinations, or other written work required during the period of absence. The responsibility for making up such work rests wholly upon the student. A failure grade for the omitted work will be charged against the student if he does not fulfill his obligations within the time limit determined by his professors.

Discipline The educational system of this University includes, as one of its most important features, the formation of character. It is expected that each student will be so loyal to the spirit and ideals of the University that the exercise of proper self-control will come from his own convictions and free determination.

It is intended that the college regulations be a guide and help to foster that gentlemanly conduct which is presupposed in every Loyola student. The College requires regular and punctual attendance at all scheduled exercises, observance of college customs and regulations, serious application to study, and inoffensive conduct. A student who shows himself deficient in these essential points will be suspended or dismissed.

The University reserves the right to dismiss at any time a student who fails to give satisfactory evidence of earnestness of purpose and of interest in the serious work of college life. In rare cases a student may be dismissed for a reason that seems to students and parents to be insufficient. In such cases the University is to be considered the more capable judge of what affects the interests both of the institution and of the student-body.

Grades and Reports A report of the semester grades made by a student in his scheduled subjects is sent to the student's parents or guardians at the middle and end of each trimester. Other reports will be sent by the Dean whenever he judges it advisable to do so.

Grades are reported as follows: "A" excellent; "B," very good; "C," good; "D," merely passing; "E," conditioned; "F," failed; "FE," failure because of excessive absences; "FS," failure because of pre-examination scholastic deficiency; "W," withdrew from subject course with permission; "WF," failure because of withdrawal from subject course without permission.

A student must earn the right to take the trimester examination in each of his scheduled subjects. To do so he must have attended the required number of class and laboratory periods in the subject, he must have submitted the required term paper, and he must have made a minimum average grade of "D" for the trimester's work in the subject prior to the trimester examination. This average will be computed from the grades made in the quizzes, the mid-trimester test, the term paper, the laboratory work, and all other work required in that subject. A student who fails to qualify for a trimester examination in a subject will be charged with a failure in that subject.

When a student, at the end of a trimester, makes the passing grade of "D" or a higher grade, he is credited with the semester hours allowed for the subject course in which the grade is made. Otherwise, he is not credited with any semester hours.

When a student is conditioned in a subject course at the end of a trimester, he may remove the condition by examination. Only one such examination is allowed, and only on the day assigned by the Dean. If the student is successful in the examination, he receives full credit of semester hours, but the highest grade that he is allowed is "D." If the student fails to remove the condition on the day assigned by the Dean, the condition becomes a failure. A student is not allowed to remove more than two conditions of one trimester.

Classification Those students are ranked as Sophomores who of Students have credit for twenty-four semester hours; Juniors, those who have fifty-six semester hours; Seniors, those who have ninety-two semester hours. Students not included in any of these classifications are registered either as special students or as out-of-course students.

Scholastic Standing The standing of a student is computed on all hours attempted, including elementary languages, but excluding authorized withdrawals, and the first attempt at a course which has been repeated in order to raise the total quality points. A student who does not pass two-thirds of the semester hours carried in each trimester will be required to withdraw from the College for scholastic deficiencies.

A student who fails in one-third of the semester hours carried may be placed on probation for the next trimester if his general average of grades shows a general weakness. Students on probation carry a reduced schedule.

Eligibility Rules Students taking part in dramatic performances, public debates, oratorical or elocution contests, or intercollegiate athletic contests, and those who are appointed to staffs of the University publications, as well as all officers of student organizations, are subject to the following eligibility rules:

They must be doing a minimum of twelve semester hours of work; they must have passed at least twelve hours of the work in which they were enrolled for the last trimester in residence; they must not be under any official censure.

Part-Time Courses For the convenience of teachers and of others who have satisfied the requirements for college entrance, the University offers evening courses, Saturday morning courses, and summer courses. Such students schedule fewer courses per trimester than are required of students attending the full-time day courses. For further details see special bulletins for these courses. A limited number of students who have not satisfied the regular requirements for college entrance are permitted to take these part-time courses merely for cultural purposes. They are not allowed college credit for such studies until proper entrance credentials have been approved and placed on file in the University.

Combined Courses A student who has completed the Junior year in the College of Arts and Sciences may enter upon his professional studies and after one year of such studies may receive a degree from the College of Arts and Sciences, provided he has fulfilled the following requirements: (1) Before transferring to the professional studies he must have completed all the subject courses of the College of Arts and Sciences specifically required for the academic degree, as the professional studies will be accepted only as electives for that degree; (2) he must have been registered during the entire year as a Senior in the College of Arts and Sciences and as a First Year student or Freshman in the professional school in which he is taking his professional studies, and his program of first year studies in the professional school must have been approved at the beginning of the session by the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences; (3) he must have completed successfully the first year of his professional studies as required by the professional school for his promotion to the second year of professional studies in that school, although not more than twenty-two semester hours of such studies will be accepted toward his academic degree; (4) he must not be under any official censure either in the College of Arts and Sciences or in the professional school; (5) he must see that an official record of the studies which he has taken and the grades he has made in them during his first year of professional studies, together with a statement that he has been promoted to the second year of professional studies and that he is not under any official censure in the professional school, be sent by the Dean of the professional school to the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

Such a candidate for a degree from the College of Arts and Sciences must be present with the other candidates for degrees at the Baccalaureate Services and the Commencement Exercises of the University.

Requirements for Undergraduate Degrees I. The Amount of Work—To receive a baccalaureate degree, a student is required to complete at least 128 semester hours, distributed normally throughout eight trimesters in such manner as to include in his last four trimesters a field of concentration consisting of 30 to 36 semester hours of upper division work in related courses 18 of which must be taken from one field and 12 from one or more related fields.

Before the end of his Sophomore year, the student, with the assistance of the Chairmen of the Departments, will select his field of concentration. No student will be permitted to begin his field of concentration unless he has the rating of a Junior, has completed his lower division course requirements, has an average of "C" for all courses completed and has an average of "C" in the lower division subject courses of the major field he intends to elect. The field, as outlined by the Chairmen, must be submitted in duplicate form to the Dean for his approval. After such approval, any change in the student's field of concentration is not allowed without permission of the Dean, and ordinarily such a change will prolong his studies before he may receive a degree. Students who have transferred from another college must complete their last 32 hours and 50 per cent of their field of concentration in residence.

Compulsory Physical Education All male Freshmen will be required to take Physical Education during their first and second years at the University. They will be given a thorough health examination to determine their classification and load for physical activities. Unless a student has fulfilled the two-year requirement in Physical Education by the beginning of his Senior year, he will not be allowed to carry a schedule entitling him to graduate at the end of that scholastic year.

N. E.—The curricula above contain only the minimum subject requirements. The additional semester hours required to complete the one hundred and twenty-eight are scheduled in one's field of concentration.

*Requirement of Mathematics and Science in the A.B. and Ph.B. curricula is waived when the required High School units are offered in these subjects.

Elementary courses in Modern Foreign Languages may be counted as partial fulfillment of this requirement.

‡For majors in Physics and Mathematics, lower division requirements are 12 hours in Physics, 8 hours in Chemistry and 9 hours in Mathematics; for majors in Chemistry, 16 hours in Chemistry, 12 hours in Physics and 9 hours in Mathematics; for majors in Biology, 16 hours in Biology and 16 hours in Chemistry.

III. Quality of Work A candidate for a degree must present not only the required character and quantity of work, but he must attain a certain standard of excellence in his work, especially in his major and minor areas of concentration. Hence, the candidate for a bachelor's degree must present, in addition to the minimum of 128 semester hours of credit, a minimum of 128 quality points, or an average grade of "C" or better. Moreover, a student must make a "C" average in each area of his field of concentration.

Quality points are earned in the following manner: For the grade of "A" in a subject course, the student is credited with three times as many quality points as semester hours allowed for that course; for the grade of "B," twice as many quality points as semester hours; for the grade of "C," just as many quality points as semester hours; for the grade of "D," semester hours are credited, but not quality points; for the grade of "F," neither semester hours nor quality points are credited, but the semester hours are added as hours attempted in computing a student's standing and credit point ratio.

With the permission of the Dean, a student may repeat a course already successfully completed in order to better the quality of his work. The grade earned in the second attempt at such a course is to be considered in all cases as the student's official grade for that course, even though the grade earned in the first attempt be higher. No third attempt will be allowed unless the second attempt results in a Failure, in which case the course must be repeated a second time.

IV. Other Requirements In addition to the above requirements, the following regulations must be observed:

(1) The candidate for a degree either must submit a thesis of approximately 5,000 words on a particular phase of his major subject, or must take a comprehensive examination in his major subject, depending upon the regulations of the department of his field of concentration.

(2) A. Before writing his thesis the student must obtain from the Chairman of the Department of his field of concentration the approval of the subject of his thesis. He must present to his Chairman two copies of the completed thesis not later than the first class day in January in his Senior year if he is a candidate for graduation in February; not later than the first class day in April in his Senior year if he is a candidate for graduation in May; not later than the first class day in August in his Senior year if he is a candidate for graduation in September. The Chairman's approval of the thesis is required for graduation.

B. If the student is to take a comprehensive examination, the field of examination is to be determined by the Chairman of the Department of his major subject. The successful completion of this examination is required for the graduation of the student.

(3) At the beginning of the scholastic year in which the candidate expects to complete the work required for his degree he must present to the Registrar a formal application for that degree.

(4) One month before the date of graduation, the candidate must pay his graduation fee and discharge all other financial indebtedness to the University.

(5) All candidates for degrees must be present at the Baccalaureate Services and the Commencement Exercises. The University will not confer degrees in absentia except in the case of students who are called to the armed services.

Graduation Honors Graduation honors are computed according to the quality point system. A student's graduation average is determined by dividing the total number of quality points earned by the total number of semester hours attempted by the student during his entire course. Semester hours carried include all hours attempted, excepting authorized withdrawals and the first attempt at a course which has been repeated in order to raise the total of quality points. A student who has made an average of 2.5 graduates cum laude; one who has made an average of 2.8, magna cum laude; one who has made an average of 3, maxima cum laude. Record of these honors is inscribed on the diplomas and noted in the list of graduates published for the Commencement Exercises.

Knowledge of Regulations Every student is to acquaint himself with all the regulations of the University that pertain to him. Ignorance of a regulation is not accepted as an excuse for its violation. These regulations are to be learned from the General Bulletin of the University, the Students' Handbook, official instructions given to the students, and posted official notices. When a student registers in the University, it is understood that both the student and the student's parents or guardians agree to the student being governed by the regulations of the University, and will abide by decisions that may be made by officials in the University regarding the student.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS OF STUDY

Department The following program is prescribed for a
of Economics Baccalaureate Degree in this department:

FRESHMAN YEAR

Course No.		Sem. Hrs.
En. 101-2	English Composition	6
Lang. 001-2
or 101-2	Modern Foreign Language.....	6
Rl. 104-5	Moral Guidance, Apologetics.....	4
Mt. 101-5	Algebra, Trigonometry	6
Fn. 101-2	Elementary Accounting	6

SENIOR YEAR

Course No.		Sem. Hrs.
Rl. 305-6	Christian Marriage	4
Cm. 303-4	Business Correspondence	4
Cm. 305-6	Commercial Law	6
Fn. 307-8	Corporation Finance, Public Finance.....	6
Electives	12(14)
		32(34)

*American History or Political Science may be substituted for Cm. 101-5.

Department of Medical Technology The special requirements for a baccalaureate degree in this department are as follows:

1. The completion of 143 semester hours of work as outlined by the department.

2. The candidate for a degree shall pass successfully a comprehensive examination in the field of medical technology during the first week of the month preceding graduation.

3. To be accepted in fulfillment of any requirement for a degree, all work must be completed with at least the grade of "D" and a general average of "C"; also, a grade of "C" or better must be made each trimester in every upper division subject taken by the student in his field of concentration.

4. No student shall be considered a candidate for a degree if he has any deficiencies at the beginning of the last trimester of his senior year.

5. In selecting the elective work, the field of concentration must be kept in mind.

6. Free electives, which afford opportunity either for broader culture or for greater specialization, as the student may choose, may be taken by students who obtain permission to do so. It is particularly recommended that Algebra, Trigonometry, and General Physics be taken as electives.

7. All Catholic students are required to take two semester hours of Religion each trimester in addition to the courses listed below.

Course No.		Sem. Hrs.

Pre-Dental Course The Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association prescribes the successful completion of four full trimesters of college work in an accredited college of liberal arts and sciences for admission to the study of dentistry. The college course must include at least a year's credit in English, in biology, in physics, and in inorganic chemistry, and a half year's credit in organic chemistry. All courses in science should include both class and laboratory instruction. These requirements are met at Loyola by the following schedule:

FRESHMAN YEAR

Subject.	Sem. Hrs.
†English Composition	6
†Chemistry, Inorganic	8
†Biology (Bl. 101-4, or Bl. 105-6).....	8
†Algebra-Trigonometry	6

Pre-Legal Course In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering upon the study of law must have completed one-half of the work acceptable for a bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study by the State University or the principal colleges or universities where the law school is located. Moreover, the student must earn as many quality points as semester hours carried during his entire pre-legal work.

The particular program offered by the College of Arts and Sciences is the following:

FRESHMAN YEAR

Subject	Sem. Hrs.
English	6
French	6
Science or Accountancy.....	8
History	6
Sociology or Economics.....	6
*Elective	4

SOPHOMORE YEAR

Subject	Sem. Hrs.
English	6
French	6
History	6
Philosophy	8
Public Speaking	2
*Elective	4

†These courses are mentioned specifically as requirements for acceptance by dental and medical schools. The courses not so marked are recommended electives. A course in Religion must be scheduled each trimester by all Catholic students.

*Electives to be chosen from any lower division course offered in the College of Arts and Sciences. For electives the student is urged to take more cultural subjects than scientific subjects, such as English, literature, history, sociology, and philosophy. All Catholic students are required to take a course in Religion each trimester.

Pre-Medical Course Because of the war emergency, most medical schools have reduced their entrance requirements to the extent that four trimesters of pre-medical work will qualify a student for admission. Although the total amount of pre-medical work has been reduced, the list of required subjects has, in most cases, not been altered. Pre-Medical students will find that the following abbreviated curriculum will satisfy the entrance requirements of most medical schools.

FRESHMAN YEAR

Subject.	Sem. Hrs.
†English Composition	6
†Chemistry, Inorganic	8
†Biology (Bl. 101-4 or Bl. 105-6)	8
†Algebra-Trigonometry	6

Electives	0-4

Pre-Induction Courses Recognizing that the primary reason for the continued existence and operation of the University during the war crisis is to promote the war on the educational front, a College Coordinating Committee for War Training Courses was established in the fall of 1942, and included among its recommendations to further the contribution of Loyola University to the military objective the following:

1. That every full-time male student in the College of Arts and Sciences be required to register for and successfully complete a course in college algebra and trigonometry.
2. That at the discretion of the Department Chairman every full-time male student in the College of Arts and Sciences be allowed to schedule as part of his program one pre-induction course per semester.

†These courses are mentioned specifically as requirements for acceptance by dental or medical schools. The courses not so marked are recommended electives. A course in Religion must be scheduled each trimester by all Catholic students.

3. That these pre-induction courses be used in the place of electives wherever the student's schedule allows electives to be chosen.

4. That the substitution of one pre-induction course per semester for some course formerly required in the respective degree programs be permitted wherever necessary and possible. The pre-induction course may not be substituted for Religion, subjects in and prerequisite for major and minor areas of concentration (eighteen hours Upper Division in major area and twelve hours Upper Division in minor area), Freshman English, or, except in extreme cases, Philosophy. These substitutions shall be made with the advice of the Department Chairman of the student's major subject and the approval of the Dean.

A list of the pre-induction courses is given in this catalogue.

THE GRAND COTEAU DIVISION OF THE COLLEGE

GRAND COTEAU, LA.

Saint Charles College, situated at Grand Coteau, Louisiana, in the southwestern part of the state, is a part of the College of Arts and Sciences of Loyola University. It is the training school for the members of the New Orleans Province (Southern States) of the Society of Jesus. The collegiate studies pursued there are the first part of the educational training in the formation of a Jesuit. These four years of study are followed by three years in the School of Philosophy and Science, by a period of teaching of three to five years, then by four years of theology in the School of Divinity, and finally by one year devoted to higher ascetical study.

On his admission to the Jesuit Order, the student begins a period of two years of study that is largely ascetical, consequently non-academic, in character. To keep up his academic interests, however, about three hours each day are devoted to academic study, one to Latin, another to Greek, and a third to English, and vacations as well as other periods of leisure are utilized for the acquisition of modern foreign languages.

During the second period of two years, however, the student's interest is concentrated on humanistic studies. As a majority of the members of the Jesuit Order spend their entire lives in teaching or in school administration, all are required to spend from three to five years in teaching, between the period of their philosophical and that of their theological studies. The training required for such a life of classroom activity is begun in the Grand Coteau Division of the College of Arts and Sciences.

In accordance with these purposes of the school, the enrollment in this Division is limited to the members of the Jesuit Order.

Requirements The minimum entrance requirement to this For Admission Division is the completion of a standard high school course requiring four years of Latin. A large number of students, however, have completed at least two years of college study. Because of the differences in previous preparation, private study under the most careful individual guidance and a modified tutorial method of instruction are offered the student to enable him to enjoy the fullest opportunity for self-development.

Advanced Standing Students who have already secured their baccalaureate degree, or who have finished a portion of their college work, may complete the required studies in a shorter time than the period ordinarily prescribed. Under exceptional circumstances, the student may be required to take only courses in education, so that he may comply with the prerequisites for teaching as demanded by law in the various states and by the prescriptions of the standardizing agencies.

Organization and Courses The Grand Coteau Division is administered by an Associate Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences.

The courses offered in the Grand Coteau Division are listed with the courses offered at the University in New Orleans. Since one of the primary purposes of the Division is the education of future teachers, the various systems of education in their historical development as well as in their practical effects are reviewed, but emphasis is placed largely upon the Ratio Studiorum, which is the method of teaching traditional in the Jesuit Order. Another primary purpose of the Division is to deepen the student's appreciation and love of the classical languages, and every effort is made to develop scholarly interest in these subjects on the part of those who show special aptitude.

Examinations Examinations are held at the end of each semester. They are both oral and written, and a rigorous test is exacted in each of the subjects of study. If it should be found that a student is unable to complete the courses in a satisfactory manner within the prescribed time, he is required to add one or more years to his course before being allowed to proceed.

DEPARTMENTS OF INSTRUCTION

The courses of instruction in all departments of the College of Arts and Sciences are numbered in accordance with the following plan:

Lower division courses, numbered from 100 to 299, are, in general, introductory, and basic.

Upper division courses are numbered from 300 to 399. For these courses, basic training in the same or in allied subjects is a prerequisite.

The college credit allowed for a course is stated in terms of semester hours.

The following is a list of the key letters used to indicate the different courses of instruction:

PRE-INDUCTION COURSES

Bl. 107-8 Elementary Anatomy and Physiology A course in the fundamentals of mammalian anatomy, and the normal functions of tissues and organs, with special emphasis on the human type. The lectures will be supplemented by occasional laboratory demonstrations. Two periods each week.
4 sem. hrs.

Ped. 186 First Aid Red Cross Standard and Advanced First Aid Class will meet for two-hour sessions. Pupils successfully completing the course will be awarded both Standard and Advanced Red Cross First Aid Certificates.
2 sem. hrs.

Ch. 110 Poisonous Gases Two lectures a week from September through January. Prerequisite: High School Chemistry.
2 sem. hrs.

Ch. 111 Explosives Two lectures a week from February through May. Prerequisite: High School Chemistry.
2 sem. hrs.

Ch. 210 Fuels and Oils (Internal Combustion Engines) Two lectures a week from September through January. Prerequisite: College Chemistry 101-2.
2 sem. hrs.

Ch. 111 Decontaminants Two lectures a week from February through May. Prerequisites: Chemistry 101-2. 2 sem hrs.

Ph. 101-103 Radio Servicing and Operating Three lectures a week from September through January. Prerequisite: High School Graduation.
6 sem. hrs.

Ph. 102-104 Radio Servicing and Operating Laboratory work for Ph. 101-103. Prerequisite: High School Graduation.
2 sem. hrs.

Ph. 335-337 Radio Communication Three lectures a week from February through May. Prerequisite: General College Physics, Calculus and Differential Equations. 6 sem. hrs.

Ph. 336-338 Radio Communication Laboratory work for Ph. 335-337. Prerequisite: General College Physics, Calculus and Differential Equations. 4 sem. hrs.

Ph.105-106 Basic Photography A course presenting the basic principles of photography and also the technique of military photography. It includes elementary photography, chemistry of photography, optics, use of filters, sensitometry, sensitized materials, ground camera photography, negative making, printing, copying, lantern slides, color photography, and laboratory operations. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 207 Military Surveying Speedy methods used in measurement of distances, angles, difference of elevation; practical use of prismatic compass, passometer, pedometer, odometer, clinometer and aneroid barometer; military sketches; conventional signs used in military surveying. Prerequisite: Mt. 101 or 103 and Mt. 105. 3 sem. hrs.

The following courses may also be taken for pre-induction training. The description of these courses may be found in the proper places in the catalogue.

Mt. 101-5

Ph. 202-4

Mt. 310

Ph. 211

Ph. 201-3

Ph. 212

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

*John G. Arnold, Jr., Ph.D., Chairman

Walter G. Moore, Ph.D., Acting Chairman

Fall Trimester

Bl. 104 General Zoology A continuation of the course Bl. 101. A comprehensive study is made of typical invertebrate and vertebrate animals. Cell division, embryology, and heredity are also considered. This course is required of pharmacy students. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 101. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 106 Vertebrate Zoology A study of the taxonomy, morphology, physiology, life history, habits, and distribution of vertebrate animals. Reference is made to the lower chordate animals. Embryology, genetics, and ecology are considered briefly. This course is recommended for pre-medical students. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 105. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

*On leave of absence for war services.

Bl. 202 General Embryology A study of the origin and maturation of germ cells, fertilization, and the formation of germ layers in certain typical invertebrate and vertebrate animals. Knowledge of the development of the systems of a vertebrate is obtained through an intensive study of the development of the chick. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 201. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 203 Genetics The study of similarities and differences in organisms. Chromosome theory, Mendelian inheritance, and biometry are considered. Two lectures. Prerequisite: Bl. 101-104, or equivalent. Not offered in 1942-1943. 2 sem hrs.

Bl. 204 History of Biology A survey of the principal figures and discoveries which have contributed to the development of the science of biology. Two lecture periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 101-104 or equivalent. Not offered in 1942-1943. 2 sem. hrs.

Bl. 206 Elementary Physiology A course in the fundamentals of mammalian anatomy and the normal functions of tissues and organs, with special emphasis on the human type. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bl. 201. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 301 Bacteriology This course embraces bacteriological technique, the classification and the study of the properties of important non-pathogenic and pathogenic bacteria. The principles of immunity and serology, and a brief survey of protozoan parasites and filtrable viruses are also considered. Urine, gastric, milk, and water analyses comprise this course. This course is recommended for pre-medical students. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 101-104, 201-202. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 304 General Physiology The study of the normal function of tissues and organs of animal forms. Special emphasis is laid on the mammalian type in order better to understand human physiology. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 201-202. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 306 Animal Microtechnic A course in the principles and methods of preparing animal material for microscopical study. The student is given practice in fixing, embedding, sectioning, staining, and mounting tissues; the preparation of whole mounts. It is recommended for biology majors. One lecture or conference, and at least three laboratory periods a week. Prerequisite: Bl. 302. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 307-308 Industrial Bacteriology A course to familiarize the student with the principles of bacteriology, mycology, and protozoology in relation to the various industries. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Three years of chemistry and one year of biology. Offered every year. 8 sem. hrs.

Bl. 310 Pothier Seminar The seminar is composed of the staff and of students majoring in biology, as well as others interested in the subject. The work of the seminar consists in the reading and discussion of papers on biological subjects by the members, and lectures by visiting scientists. Offered every year. No credit.

Bl. 390-391 Biological Problems. This is a course to allow the student to carry advanced biological work under faculty supervision. This course is open to Seniors. Prerequisite: Three years of biology. Offered every year.

Credit determined by work done.

Spring Trimester

Bl. 101 General Botany An introductory course designed to acquaint the student with certain broad biological principles by means of a study of living organisms. The morphology and physiology of the cell are considered. With this as a foundation, study is made of the classification, structure, function, development, and relationship of typical examples of the chief plant groups. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 105 Invertebrate Zoology A study of the underlying principles of animal life. The taxonomy, morphology, physiology, life history, habits, and distribution of the invertebrate group (Protozoa, Porifera, Cœlenterata, Platyhelminthes, Nematelminthes, Echinodermata, Annelida, Mollusca, and Arthropoda) are considered. This course is recommended for pre-medical students. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 201 Comparative Anatomy of the Vertebrates An intensive study of type forms as a preparation for human anatomy. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 105-106, or equivalent. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 302 General Histology Histological technique, the study of the microscopic structure of tissues and organs of the mammalian body, and the study of the fundamentals of blood counting. Recommended for pre-medical students. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 301. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 303 General Physiology The study of the normal functions of tissues and organs of animal forms. Special emphasis is laid on the mammalian type in order to better understand human physiology. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 201-202. 4 sem. hrs.

Bl. 305 Animal Parasitology A study of parasites in relation to disease. The various types of parasites, their life histories, and the conditions which they cause will be considered. This course is recommended for pre-medical students and for those specializing in biology. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bl. 101-104, or equivalent, and Bl. 201-202. Offered every year. 4 sem. hrs.

DEPARTMENT OF MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

*John G. Arnold, Jr., Ph.D., Chairman

Walter G. Moore, Ph.D., Acting Chairman

Fall Trimester

Md. 102 A course to acquaint the prospective Medical Technician with the care of the equipment of the laboratory and the ethics of the profession. A study of the fundamentals of hematology is included in the first semester and the principles of urinalysis the second.

Offered every year.

4 sem. hrs.

Md. 202 This course includes a thorough review of the fundamentals of urinalysis and hematology, and detailed studies in the technique of electrocardiography, basal metabolism, and fecal analysis are made.

Offered every year.

4 sem. hrs.

Md. 302 A course designed to acquaint the student with the techniques and fundamental principles of serology and medical bacteriology. It is essential that Bl. 301 (Bacteriology) precede this course.

Offered every year.

4 sem. hrs.

Md. 391 A comprehensive review of all preceding courses with further studies in techniques and interpretation of results. The following subjects are included:

Urinalysis	Gastro-Enterology
Hematology	Pathogenic Bacteriology
Serology	Basal Metabolism
Tissue Sections	Electrocardiography
Parasitology	Museum Preparation Technique
Fecal Analysis	Gross and Microscopic Photography

Offered every year.

8 sem. hrs.

Spring Trimester

Md. 101 As described in Md. 102, Fall Trimester.

4 sem. hrs.

Md. 201 As described in Md. 202, Fall Trimester.

4 sem. hrs.

Md. 301 As described in Md. 302, Fall Trimester.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

Rev. George A. Francis, S.J., Ph.D., Chairman

Fall Trimester

Ch. 102 General Inorganic Fundamental principles of chemistry; the laws of chemical action and description of the non-metallic and metallic elements and their compounds. Two lectures, one recitation and two laboratory periods.

4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 202 Organic Chemistry Discussion of the important compounds of aliphatic and aromatic series and preparation of typical compounds. Two lectures and two laboratory periods.

4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 302 Inorganic Quantitative Analysis Gravimetric and volumetric methods of analysis. One lecture and three laboratory periods. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 304 Physical Chemistry A general survey of the subject. Treatment of the laws of chemical phenomena—the gaseous, liquid, and solid states of matter. The course treats of thermo-chemistry, laws governing chemical changes, and electro-chemistry. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 306 Industrial Chemistry A study of the more important chemical industries. The course deals with production of petroleum products; animal and vegetable oils and fats; sugar; water for municipalities and for industrial uses; paints; varnishes; lacquers; synthetic plastics; industrial alcohol; etc. Two lecture periods. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 308 Technical Methods of Analysis Analysis of the substances discussed in Ch. 305-306. Three laboratory periods. 3 sem. hrs.

Ch. 309 Biological Chemistry A study of the chemical constituents of the body. The chemistry and functions of the carbohydrates, fats, proteins, vitamins, and mineral elements of foods. Two lectures and three hours of laboratory. 3½ sem. hrs.

Ch. 310 Biological Chemistry A study of the chemical constituents of the body. The chemistry and functions of the carbohydrates, fats, proteins, vitamins, and mineral elements of foods. Two lectures and three hours of laboratory. This course is offered for Medical Technology students only. 3½ sem. hrs.

Spring Trimester

Ch. 101 Inorganic Chemistry As described in Ch. 102, Fall Trimester. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 201 Organic Chemistry As described in Ch. 202, Fall Trimester. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 301 Qualitative Chemistry Detection of the common cations and anions, based on the application of chemical principles. One lecture and three laboratory periods. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 303 Physical Chemistry As described in Ch. 304, Fall Trimester. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 305 Industrial Chemistry As described in Ch. 306, Fall Trimester. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 307 Technical Methods of Analysis As described in Ch. 308, Fall Trimester. 4 sem. hrs.

Ch. 309 Biological Chemistry As described in Fall Trimester for Medical Technology students. 3½ sem. hrs.

Ch. 310 Biological Chemistry As described in Fall Trimester for Dental Students. 3½ sem. hrs.

DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL LANGUAGES

Rev. Robert M. Brooks, S.J., A.M., Chairman

A. Latin

Fall Trimester

Lt. 101 Cicero One of these four orations: Pro Archia, De Signis, Pro Marcello, Pro Ligario. Rapid review of syntax. 3 sem. hrs.

Lt. 106 Latin Composition Advanced composition based on Bradley's Arnold. 2 sem. hrs.

Lt. 201 Cicero A study of the principles of the art of literary expression as illustrated and exemplified by the Pro Milone, Pro Lege Manilia, or the Second Philippic. 3 sem. hrs.

Lt. 206 Latin Composition Advanced composition. A continuation of Lt. 106. 2 sem. hrs.

Lt. 301 Cicero Literary study of the Tusculanae Disputations. Selections by the professor. 2 sem. hrs.

Spring Trimester

Lt. 102 Horace Ars Poetica and select lyrics; principles of versification. 3 sem. hrs.

Lt. 106 Latin Composition As described in the Fall Trimester. 2 sem. hrs.

- Lt. 202 Horace Literary study of the Satires and Epistles.
3 sem. hrs.
- Lt. 206 Latin Composition As described in the Fall Trimester.
2 sem. hrs.
- Lt. 303 Virgil Eclogues and Georgics.
3 sem. hrs.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMICS

John V. Connor, Ph.D., Chairman

Fall Trimester

A. Commerce

- Cm. 101 Economic History of United States A survey of the outstanding industrial, commercial, agricultural, financial, labor, and transportation factors in the development of the United States.
3 sem. hrs.
- Cm. 202 Elementary Economic Problems Business financing; business cycles; trust and monopoly control; transport; agriculture; labor; insurance; public finance.
3 sem. hrs.
- Cm. 303 Business Correspondence Principles of business correspondence; emphasis on structure and content of different types of letters; war correspondence; business reports; practice writing on assigned problems.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Rev. James F. Whelan, S.J., Ph.D., Chairman

Fall Trimester

A. Education

Ed. 303 The Program of Secondary Education—Part 1 The purpose of this course is to bring about an understanding of the organization of learning programs in the secondary school and a knowledge of the materials and methods suited to the needs of secondary pupils. Part 1 of this course includes: The development of the American high school, the formulation of an educational philosophy of the American secondary school, the objectives and functions of secondary education, the program of the American secondary school, the organization of the program of secondary education, the nature and purpose of the high school curriculum, the identification and analysis of the problems involved in curriculum-making in the secondary school, and curriculum-making and the program of studies for secondary education. 2 sem. hrs.

Ed. 304 The Program of Secondary Education—Part 2 This course is a continuation of Part 1. It includes: Means and materials of the high school curriculum, the pupil activity program, the organization of curriculum materials and elements of learning and teaching, curriculum evaluation, revision, and adjustments, organization of secondary school pupils, guidance service in the secondary school, library service in the secondary school, and organization of the secondary school staff. 2 sem. hrs.

Ed. 307 Philosophy of Education. The philosophies of naturalism, socialism, and nationalism, and the systems of education to which each of these philosophies gave rise. This course then examines the attitude of the more conservative philosophers and educators toward naturalism, socialism, and nationalism. 3 sem. hrs.

Ed. 330 General Psychology—Course I Definition and scope; mental faculties; the external senses; the internal senses; impulses and desires; reflex action; the faculty of thought; the faculty of choice; feelings and emotions; habit; character. 3 sem. hrs.

Ed. 334 Educational Psychology This course is a continuation of Ed. 333. It includes: Reflective thinking and problem solving, expression and creation activity, economy in learning (whole versus part learning, distribution of practice, order of presentation, recitation), the development of emotionalized action, the nature and development of personality, social behavior and character development, adjustment and mental hygiene, childhood and adolescence, individual differences, intelligence (its nature, development and measurement), educational measurement, and hygiene of the learning environment. 3 sem. hrs.

Ed. 350 Directed Observation and Teaching This course offers to prospective teachers a cadetship in teaching under the direction of an approved and experienced teacher. Students registering in this course must have an average of 1.25 quality points in the teaching field, together with at least six semester hours in education, before they will be allowed to teach any subject. This course must include at least sixty clock hours of actual teaching while being observed by the critic teacher. The work of the course consists in actual teaching under the direction and observation of the critic teacher, and conferences with the critic teacher, the school principal, and the instructor of the course.

Observation:

Study of the pupil to be taught, assistance to critic teacher by gradual initiation into duties of the teacher, such as keeping class roll, noting and taking responsibility for physical aspects of classroom, assisting individual pupils in finding references, deciding on advanced or supplementary assignments, participation in class discussions and activities as if a member of the class.

Experience in marking some of the pupils' papers; in becoming familiar with the classroom and general library references in the field, and other materials; in helping individuals and small groups plan activities, work out group projects, etc.

Construction or revision of a teaching unit (with or without the aid of pupils) to be used by student teacher while in full responsibility for class.

Private conferences with critic teacher and supervisor on points observed and problems noted in connection with observation period of gradually increasing assistance and participation.

Practice:

Experience in teaching one or more units in the class assigned therefor; and in assuming complete responsibility for all the activities of planning and execution connected therewith.

Private conferences with the critic teacher and supervisor on problems, responsibilities and activities growing out of actual teaching being done by student.

Attendance at and participation in the general group conference of all student teachers with the supervisory staff program—at least once a week.

Construction, administration, and evaluation of objective and essay tests used in teaching of units and in final semester or term examinations in the field of teaching.

Visits to other teachers and schools for observation of problems and methods under varying conditions.

Construction and use of student teachers' self-rating scales and self-evaluation charts and outlines, and using same.

Laboratory fee, $10.00.

4 sem. hrs.

B. Physical Education

Ped. 101 Physical Activity An introduction to fundamental activities in calisthenics, competitive and combative sports. Required of all male freshmen. 1 sem. hr.*

Ped. 102 Physical Activity Advanced course in calisthenics, competitive and combative sports. Required of all male freshmen. 1 sem. hr.*

N. B.—A $10.00 fee will be charged for Ped. 101-102.

Ped. 189 Theory and Practice of Relay, Contests and Minor Games Games that can be used in class, also lead-up games that can be used with major games. 2 sem. hrs.*

Ped. 201 Physical Activity A program of sports activities, including team organization and fundamentals of team play. Required of all male sophomores. 1 sem. hr.*

Ped. 202 Physical Activity An advanced program of sports, including participation, officiating and interpretation of rules and regulations. Required of all male sophomores. 1 sem. hr.*

N. B.—A $10.00 fee will be charged for Ped. 201-202.

Ped. 301 Physical Activity A continuation of Ped. 202 for Juniors. 1 sem. hr.*

Ped. 303 Physical Activity A continuation of Ped. 301-2 for Seniors. 1 sem. hr.*

Ped. 370 History of Physical Education A survey of old systems and modern trends. Amateurism and professionalism in athletics. 2 sem. hrs.

Ped. 380 Theory and Practice of Physical Education Organization, direction, rules, and fundamental team play in major sports. 2 sem. hrs.*

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH AND JOURNALISM

Rev. Eugene J. O'Connor, S.J., Ph.D., Chairman

Program of Majors

All majors in the department are required to take En. 380, and must have at least one figure course, numbered 301-325; one period course, numbered 326-350; and one drama course, numbered 351-375. Additional credits may be taken from any course numbered over 300.

Fall Trimester

A. Composition

En. 001 English Composition A course devoted to practice in correct writing. This is a laboratory course, conducted three hours a week and required of Freshmen who demonstrate, in the aptitude test, a noticeable weakness in the fundamentals. Transfer students who register with advanced standing and are judged deficient in oral or written composition will be required to follow this course. No credit.

En. 101 Freshman Composition Principles of effective writing. 3 sem. hrs.

*No academic credit is given unless Physical Education is included in the minor area of the field of concentration. Otherwise, credit is given for certification only.

En. 102 Freshman Composition Continuation of En. 101. Exercises in narratives and descriptive forms, and the familiar essay. 3 sem. hrs.

B. Literature

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

Dr. J. Henri Amiel, Ph.D., Chairman

Fall Trimester

A. French

Fr. 001-002 Basic French This course aims to give the essentials of French: pronunciation, grammar, reading. The semester hours credit will be allowed toward the completion of the total hours for graduation, but not toward the fulfillment of the language requirements. 6 sem. hrs.

Fr. 101-102 Intermediate A continuation of French 001-002: grammar, graded composition, reading, conversation. Prerequisite: French 001-002, or a passing grade in a qualifying examination. 6 sem. hrs.

Fr. 202 Precis of French Literature A rapid survey of the dramatic literature from the Middle Ages to modern times. Special emphasis given to the drama of the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Collateral reading and composition. 3 sem. hrs.

Fr. 307 Drama The Classical Period. 3 sem. hrs.

B. Spanish

Sp. 001-002 Elementary A course intended to give the essentials of grammar. The semester hours credit will be allowed toward the completion of the total hours required for graduation, but not toward the fulfillment of the language requirement. 6 sem. hrs.

Sp. 101-102 Intermediate Review of grammar; composition and reading. Prerequisite: Sp. 001-002 or a passing grade in a qualifying examination. 6 sem. hrs.

Sp. 202 Survey A survey of Spanish literature. Collateral reading and composition. 3 sem. hrs.

Sp. 308 Drama The Nineteenth Century. 3 sem. hrs.

C. German

Gr. 001-002 Elementary A course intended to give the essentials of grammar. The semester credit hours will be allowed toward the completion of the total hours required for graduation, but not toward the fulfillment of the language requirement. 6 sem. hrs.

Gr. 101-102 Intermediate Review of grammar; composition and reading. Prerequisite: Gr. 001-002 or a passing grade in a qualifying examination. 6 sem. hrs.

Gr. 202 Survey A survey of German literature. Collateral reading and composition. 3 sem. hrs.

Spring TrimesterA. French

Fr. 001-002 Basic French As described above in Fall Trimester. 6 sem. hrs.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS AND MATHEMATICS

Rev. Karl A. Maring, S.J., Ph.D., Chairman

Fall TrimesterA. Physics

Ph. 201 General Physics The principles of mechanics, heat, sound, light, magnetism, electricity, and fundamentals of atomic physics constitute this course. It is intended for pre-medical, pre-dental, medical technician, and students who do not offer physics, mathematics, or pre-engineering as their field of concentration. Three lectures each week for two trimesters. Prerequisite: Mt. 101 or 103, and 105.

3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 202 General Physics A companion laboratory course of about thirty experiments to Ph. 201-203. One laboratory period each week for two trimesters. 1 sem. hr.

Ph. 211 General Physics An intensive course in general physics. It is intended for students whose major fields of concentration are chemistry, mathematics, or physics, as well as for pre-engineering students. The objective of this course is a thorough grounding based on rigorous mathematical treatment in the fundamentals of mechanics, wave motion, sound, heat, light, magnetism, electricity, and molecular physics. Three lectures each week for three semester hours. Minimum prerequisite: Mt. 103, 105. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 212 General Physics A companion laboratory course of about fifty selected experiments to Ph. 211-213-215. One laboratory period of three hours each week for three trimesters. 1 sem. hr.

Ph. 215 General Physics A continuation of Ph. 211-213. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 216 General Physics A continuation of Ph. 212-214. 1 sem. hr.

Ph. 303 Electricity and Magnetism A lecture course giving an extended and mathematical treatment of the theory and practical applications. Three lectures per week. Prerequisites: Ph. 201-203 (A or B), Mt. 301-302. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 304 Electrical Measurements Laboratory work in electricity and magnetism. Coordinated with Ph. 301-303 and having the same prerequisites. Two laboratory periods. 2 sem. hrs.

Ph. 307 Analytical Mechanics The elementary theory of the statics, kinetics, and dynamics of particles and rigid bodies. Three lecture periods. Prerequisites: Same as for Ph. 301-303. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 311 Optics The fundamental principles of geometrical and physical optics, with an introduction to modern theories of radiation. Prerequisite: Same as for Ph. 301-303. Three lecture periods. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 312 Optical Measurements This is a laboratory course to accompany Ph. 311. It includes measurements on the index of refraction, spectrometry (visible spectrum), focal length of converging lenses and lens systems, lens aberrations, interference, photometry, polarized light. Two laboratory periods. 2 sem. hrs.

Ph. 333 Modern Physics The origin and development of some of the more important concepts of Physics with special emphasis on the theories and developments of the last half century. Prerequisites: Same as for Ph. 301. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 337 Electronics and Radio Physics The electron and its properties; thermionic and photo-electric emission; radio transmission and receiving circuits and apparatus. Prerequisites: Ph. 301-303, Mt. 310. Three lecture periods. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 338 Practical Electronics and Radio Physics A laboratory course designed to accompany and illustrate Ph. 335-336. Two laboratory periods each week. 2 sem. hrs.

B. Drawing

Dr. 101 Elementary Mechanical Drawing Lettering; applied geometry; orthographic projections; auxiliary views; revolutions; isometric and oblique projections; developments. 3 sem. hrs.

Dr. 201 Descriptive Geometry Orthographic drawing; auxiliary views; point-line-plane problems; revolution; concurrent non-coplanar forces; curved lines and surfaces; practice and drafting-room problems. 3 sem. hrs.

C. Mathematics

Mt. 101 College Algebra Fundamental algebraic operations: addition, subtraction, multiplication, division, factoring, equations; theory of equations. This course fulfills the algebra requirement for all students except those who elect their field of concentration in mathematics or chemistry or physics. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 103 College Algebra Logarithms; slide rule; theory of equations; inequalities; combinations and permutations; mathematical induction; binomial theorem; determinants; progressions; infinite series; partial fractions. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 105 Plane Trigonometry Trigonometric functions of acute angles; use of the table of natural functions; the right triangle; trigonometric functions of any angle; functions of the sum or the difference of two angles; the oblique triangle; graphs of functions; trigonometric identities and equations; applications of trigonometry to algebra. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 203 Plane Analytic Geometry Different systems of coordinates; point; straight line; conics; transformation of coordinates; higher plane curves. Prerequisite: Mt. 103. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 302 Integral Calculus Integration by all methods; evaluation of the constant of integration; the definite integral; the fundamental theorem of integral calculus; series; multiple integrals. Prerequisite: Mt. 203. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 398-399 Advanced Calculus A course in advanced calculus, based on Osgood's Advanced Calculus. 6 sem. hrs.

Spring Trimester

A. Physics

Ph. 203 General Physics A continuation of Ph. 201 as described in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 204 General Physics A continuation of Ph. 202 as described in the Fall Trimester. 1 sem. hr.

Ph. 213 General Physics A continuation of Ph. 211 as described in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 214 General Physics A continuation of Ph. 212 as described in the Fall Trimester. 1 sem. hr.

Ph. 301 Electricity and Magnetism First part of course described under Ph. 303 in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 302 Electrical Measurements First part of laboratory described under Ph. 304 in the Fall Trimester. 2 sem. hrs.

Ph. 309 Analytical Mechanics A continuation of Ph. 307 as described in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 319 Sound The dynamics of vibrating bodies; transmission of sound; architectural acoustics, loud speakers, and microphones; supersonics; characteristics of speech and hearing. Prerequisite: Same as for Ph. 301-302. Three lecture periods. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 320 Laboratory Work in Sound The course is designed to illustrate by experiment the principles of Ph. 319. Two laboratory periods. 2 sem. hrs.

Ph. 335 Electronics and Radio Physics First part of course as described under Ph. 337 in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Ph. 336 Practical Electronics and Radio Physics First part of laboratory as described under Ph. 338 in the Fall Trimester. 2 sem. hrs.

B. Drawing

Dr. 102 Elementary Mechanical Drawing A continuation of Dr. 101 as described in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Dr. 202 Machine Drawing Piping, detailing, and general working drawings. 3 sem. hrs.

C. Mathematics

Mt. 101 College Algebra As described in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 105 Plane Trigonometry As described in the Fall Trimester. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 206 Elementary Surveying General methods used in measurement of distances, angles, difference of elevation and area; practical use of the chain, tape, level, compass, and transit; solution of simple problems in surveying. Prerequisite: Mt. 103. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 301 Differential Calculus Functions; limits; derivatives; successive derivatives; maxima and minima; roots; differentials; curvature; theorem of mean value; indeterminate forms. Prerequisite: Mt. 203. 3 sem. hrs.

Mt. 310 Differential Equations Equations of the first order and first degree; equations of the first order but of higher degree; linear equations of a higher order with constant coefficients; total differential equations; simultaneous equations; homogeneous linear equations; equations of higher order and higher degree; integration in series. Prerequisite: Mt. 302. 3 sem. hrs.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION

Rev. Lloyd F. Hatrel, S.J., A.M., Chairman

Fall Trimester

Rl. 105 Apologetics Revelation, the historicity of the Gospels; the Divinity of Christ; the Church of Christ; the Primacy of Peter; infallibility; the marks of the Church. 2 sem. hrs.

Rl. 202 Channels of Redemption A detailed study of the Sacraments; actual and sanctifying grace. 2 sem. hrs.

Rl. 302 Sacred Scripture The Bible in general; inspiration; canon of the Bible; rules of interpretation; exegesis of selected parts of the New Testament; the Life of Christ. 2 sem. hrs.

Rl. 306 Christian Marriage Notions on morality; the Church's part in determining morality; the power of the state and Church over marriage; prenuptial requirements; premarital chastity; general preparation for marriage; rights and duties of married couples; birth control; divorce. 2 sem. hrs.

Spring Trimester

Rl. 104 Moral Guidance A study of the principal laws which God has given to man to guide him in his moral conduct. 2 sem. hrs.

Rl. 201 Channels of Redemption As described in Rl. 202, Fall Trimester. 2 sem. hrs.

Rl. 301 Christian Life and Worship What it means to be a Christian; a Christocentric universe; an interpretative study of the liturgy of the Church. 2 sem. hrs.

Rl. 305 Christian Marriage As described in Rl. 306 in Fall Trimester. 2 sem. hrs.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY

Arthur T. Donohue, Ph.D., Chairman

Fall Trimester

Sl. 101 Elements of Normal Sociology Delimitation of scope; orientation with other sciences; postulates in normal sociology; biological inheritance, origin of man, culture and civilization; tendencies, social, asocial, and antisocial; foundations of social action; brief outline of social theory; uses and advantages of statistical language. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 102 Social Institutions Social environment, habits, group behavior; marriage and the family group; the state and political action; economic and occupational groups; education and educational groups; recreation and recreational groups; international groups; social work, individual, corporate and political. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 205 Social Disorders—Economic Working conditions and wages; workers' risks; labor and labor unions; industrial cooperation and friction; housing; rural problems. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 206 Social Disorders—Dependency and Delinquency Poverty, dependency and relief; formal and informal charity; treatment of defectives; eugenics and population problems; problems of family life; crime and delinquency. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 301 Urban Sociology A study of the development of the modern city; man's major adjustments to urban life, such as the new realignment of rights and duties; urban problems of housing, health, education and recreation are treated. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 307 Social Aspects of Industry A comprehensive study of social problems arising from industrial conditions. The causes of unemployment; industrial disorganization; growth of unionism; social unrest; poverty and relief; solution of the problem. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 318 Rural Sociology The development of the agricultural industry in the United States; rural society and sociology; agricultural communities; the rural people; the farmer's wealth and income; the farmer's standard of living; rural institutions and rural social life. 3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 321 Early Social Thought Nature of social thought; early informal social ideas; Levantine and Asiatic social thought, especially the Hebrew; Grecian social thinkers, especially Aristotle and Plato; Roman writers and legalists; Christian social thought and practices to the end of the Middle Ages; Utopias; individualism; Malthus and population concepts.
2 sem. hrs.

Spring Trimester

Sl. 101 Elements of Normal Sociology As described in Fall Trimester.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 102 Social Institutions As described in Fall Trimester.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 206 Social Disorders—Dependency and Delinquency As described in Fall Trimester.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 306 Christian Social Reforms This is a study of the Christian attitude toward modern social questions. The Papal encyclicals of Leo XIII and Pius XI are stressed. This course will be allowed for credit in the Department of Religion.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 308 Social Legislation The development of social status for the protection of the worker; minimum wage laws; shorter working days; compulsory education; sweatshop; mediation; compulsory investigation and arbitration; recent social laws.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 319 Crime and Juvenile Delinquency A scientific approach to the problems of crime, the criminal, punishment and reform. The causes of juvenile delinquency; treatment; methods of diagnosis; probation and parole; the juvenile court system.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 320 Rural Social Problems Modern problems of agriculture; rural housing; rural poverty and relief; rural religious problems; rural health, education and recreation; causes of agrarian discontent; agricultural reform under "New Deal" legislation.
3 sem. hrs.

Sl. 322 Development of Formal Social Theories Comte and positivism; Marx and socialistic theories; mechanistic, geographic and organic theories; Ward and Sumner; Galton, Glumpowicz and Kropotkin; psycho-sociologistic theories; recent ideologies; Christian social thought, especially Papal encyclicals.
3 sem. hrs.

FORM OF GENERAL BEQUEST

I hereby give and bequeath to Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana, for the use of said institution in fulfillment of its general corporate purpose.....

(State here the sum of money desired to be given, or, if it be the residue of an estate, state this fact.)

FORM OF BEQUEST FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE

I hereby give and bequeath to Loyola University, New Orleans, Louisiana, for the following purpose.....

(State clearly the special object of the bequest, as well as the sum of money or property, real or personal, constituting the same.)
